PART II

DOGS GENERALLY

Application to Register a dog -

3.- (1) Any person who at the date of the commencement of this Act is the owner of a dog that is 6 months old or over must, within 30 days after that date, apply to the Chief Environmental Health Officer to register the dog.

(2) Any person who, after the commencement of this Act, becomes the owner of a dog that is 6 months old or over must, within 14 days after so becoming, apply to the Chief Environmental Health Officer to register the dog.

Issue of Dog Owner Registration Certificate -

4.- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Chief Environmental health Officer must, upon receipt in respect of a dog -

- (a) of an application under section 3;
- (b) of evidence of payment of the prescribed fee; and
- (c) of evidence that the dog has been vaccinated against rabies by a veterinary surgeon, issue to an applicant a Registration Certificate in respect of the dog in a form approved by the Chief Environmental Health Officer.

(2) The Chief Environmental Health Officer may refuse to issue a registration certificate under this section if he or she reasonably believe that the applicant -

- (a) is under the age of 18 (unless the applicant has the written consent of a parent);
- (b) is not of sound mind so as to be able to control a dog;

- (c) has been convicted of an offence under this Act; or
- (d) has been convicted of an offence under the Drug Abuse (Prevention and Control) Act, 1992.

(3) A registration certificate continues in force for -

- (a) 12 months from the date of issue thereof, on payment of the prescribed fee; or
- (b) 3 years from the date of issue, upon payment of a fee equal to twice the amount of the prescribed fee, and is renewable within one month after the date of its expiry.

(4) The Chief Environmental Health Officer must supply in respect of each dog for which a registration certificate is issued under this section, without extra charge, a durable tag in the form the Minister approves, bearing a number corresponding with the number of the registration certificate

Transfer of Ownership of Dog:

5.- (1) If the owner of a registered dog transfers the dog to another person, whether by gift or sale, the person making the transfer must-

- a. inform the Chief Environmental Health Officer of the name and address of the new owner of the dog; and
- b. return the registration certificate to the Chief Environmental Health Officer.

(2) Upon transfer of a dog under subsection (1) sections 3 and 4 operate in respect of the person who becomes the new owner.

Application for kennel license

6.- (1) A person who -

- (a) keeps and operates a kennel as defined in section 2; or
- (b) keeps on the person's premises 5 or more dogs, must apply to the Chief Environmental Health Officer in such form as the Chief Environmental health Officer approves for a kennel license.

(2) The Chief Environmental Health Officer must upon;

- (a) receipt of an application under this section;
- (b) payment of the prescribed fee;
- (c) being satisfied as to the requirements of section 4 (2);
- (d) being satisfied on the report of an authorized person of the matters set out in subsection (5), issue to the applicant a kennel license in such form as the Chief Environmental Health Officer approves.

(3) Section 4 (3) applies to a license issued under this section as it applies to a registration certificate.

(4) A kennel license issued under this section is not transferable.

(5) The matters referred to in subsection (2)(d) are -

- (a) that the kennel provides dogs with shelter from adverse weather conditions;
- (b) that the kennel provides an enclosure with an adequate exercise area;
- (c) that the kennel provides and maintains sanitary conditions with adequate means of removal of faeces;
- (d) that the kennel provides necessary veterinary health care;
- (e) that the kennel provides daily food and fresh water to all dogs housed in it.

Record of certificates and licenses.

7. - (1) The Chief Environmental Health Officer must keep a record of every registration certificate issued under section 4, of every kennel license issued under section 6 and of any certificate rendered void on the transfer or other disposal of a dog.

(2) In respect of a registration certificate the record must contain -

- (a) the name and address of the person to whom the certificate was issued;
- (b) the number of the certificate and the date on which it was issued or rendered void, as the case may be;
- (c) particulars as to the breed, sex, age, colour and marking (if any) of the dog in respect of which the certificate was issued.

(3) In respect of a kennel license, the record must contain -

- (a) particulars of the place where the kennel is operated, with a copy of the authorized person's report under section 6(2)(d);
- (b) particulars as to the nature of the business of the kennel and as to the type and number of dogs kept there.

(4) A record referred to in subsection (1) is open to inspection by members of the public at any time during business hours.

Duplicate certificate or license.

8. If a registration certificate or kennel license issued under this Part is damaged, defaced or rendered illegible, the Chief Environmental Health Officer may on payment of the prescribed fee issue a duplicate registration certificate or license.

Failure to register dog or obtain kennel license.

9. - (1) A person who owns a dog without there being in force in relation to the dog a registration certificate commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $2000 and to imprisonment for 1 month.

(2) A person who owns or operates a kennel when there is not in force in relation to that kennel a kennel license commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 and to imprisonment for 6 months;

Production of certificate or license.

10 - (1) An authorized person may at any time during daylight hours enter premises and request any person whom he or she reasonably believes -

- (a) to be owner of a dog of the age of 6 months or over'

(b) to be a keeper or operator of a kennel; or

(c) to be keeping on the premises 5 or more dogs of the age of 6 months or more, to produce for inspection within 48 hours any registration certificate required under section 3 or kennel license required under section 6 as the case may be.

(2) A person who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with a request made under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $1000 and to imprisonment for 1 month.

Owner to keep collar or harness with registration tag affixed on dog

11. -(1) Subject to subsection (2), a tag furnished by the Chief Environmental Health Officer under section 4 (4) must be affixed to a substantial collar or harness to be provided by the owner of the dog for which the tag is issued and the collar or harness with the tag affixed thereto must be kept on dog at all times while it is in a public place.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) in relation to the keeping of a collar or harness with a tag affixed thereto on a dog do not apply if the dog is in the custody or care of a veterinary surgeon for the purpose of examination or treatment or is in the Animal Control Centre.

(3) Any person who -

(a). without a reasonable excuse removes a tag from a collar or harness attached to a dog;

(b). without a reasonable excuse removes a collar or harness with the tag affixed thereto from any dog; or

(c). transfers from one dog a tag issued in respect of that dog to another dog, commits an offense and is liable on the summary conviction to a fine of $1000.

Duty of Owner

12. - (1) An owner or person in charge of a dog must not

(a) permit that dog to be -

(i) in any public place unless it is kept under proper control;

(ii) in or on any premises without the consent of the owner or occupier of those premises; or

(b) permit that dog to enter, bring the dog into or allow the dog to remain in, any restaurant or any place where food is sold for public consumption, other than a guide dog for the blind.

(2) Where a dog defecates on a beach, or in a public place, the person in charge of the dog must forthwith remove the faeces and dispose of it enclosed inside plastic or paper or other suitable material, in a container intended for waste material.

(3). A person who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with this section commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $1000.

Seizure of dogs and recovery by owner.

13. - (1) Any dog that is found to be at large in a public place may be seized by an authorized person and taken to the Animal Control Centre and detained until its owner claims it and pays all reasonable expenses incurred as a result of its seizure and detention.

(2) If a dog seized under subsection (1) is wearing a collar or harness with a tag affixed, an authorized person employed at the Animal Control centre must orally or in writing inform the owner that the dog is being detained at the Animal control Centre and that it is liable to be sold or destroyed if it is not claimed and all reasonable expenses incurred by reason of its seizure and detention paid within 7 days after the owner has been so informed.

(3) If a dog seized under subsection (1) is not wearing a collar or harness with a tag affixed, a notice must be exhibited in the area where the dog was seized giving full particulars of the dog, and stating that unless a person claims the dog from the Animal Control Centre within 72 hours the dog will be destroyed.

(4) If no person claims a dog to which subsection (3) applies within the time specified, the dog may be disposed of in accordance with section 14.

(5) A note in the records of the Animal Control Centre that a dog's owner has been informed of the dog's detention under subsection (1) is, if signed and dated by an authorized person, evidence of the fact unless and until the contrary is proved.

Disposal of dogs seized.

14. - (1) An authorized person may cause a dog that has been seized and detained under section 13(1) to be sold, or given for adoption, or euthanized, if -

- (a) its owner fails to claim it within the time specified under subsection (2) of that section: or
 - (b) its owner is unknown and 72 hours have elapsed since a notice was exhibited under subsection (3) of that section;
- (2) The proceeds resulting from a sale of a dog under subsection (1) are to be applied towards the payment of all reasonable expenses incurred by reason of the seizure and detention of the dog, and the balance of the proceeds, if any, are to be paid to the owner or, if the owner is unknown, into the Consolidated Fund.

Conditions for release of dogs, etc.

15. No dog may be released from the Animal Control Centre unless the person who claims it or the person seeking to purchase it, as the case may be -

- (a) produces for the inspection of the person in charge of the Animal Control Centre a valid registration certificate in respect of that dog; and
- (b) pays all reasonable expenses incurred by reason of its seizure and detention.

Euthanasing of injured dogs.

16. - (1) If it is the opinion of a veterinary surgeon that a dog seized under section 13 -

- (a) is so severely injured as to be in extreme pain or suffering;
- (b) shows symptoms of having rabies; or
- (c) should be destroyed in the interest of public safety, the veterinary surgeon may, without permitting the dog to be delivered to its owner and without causing it to be offered for sale or adoption, euthanase the dog.

(2) No compensation is payable to any person in respect of a dog that has been euthanased under this section.

Vivisection and unlawful destruction.

17.- (1) A dog that has been seized and detained under section 13 must not be sold or otherwise disposed of for the purposes of vivisection unless the Minister in writing so permits.

(2) Except as provided by this Act, a dog must not be destroyed other than by being euthanised.

- (a) the dog wears a collar at all times;
- (b) the metal label or badge referred to in subsection (1) (a) is at all times securely affixed to the collar worn by the dog;
- (c) the dog is not abandoned or allowed to stray.

(3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

Transfer of license

23.- (1). The owner of a dangerous dog who takes up residence at a place other than that in respect of which he or she obtained a license must notify the Chief Environmental Health Officer and the Chief Environmental Health Officer if satisfied as required by section 20(3) (a), must amend the license accordingly.

(2) The owner of a dangerous dog must notify the Division if the dog is sold or given away and must notify the new owner in writing that the dog is classified as a dangerous dog.

(3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5,000 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

Obligation on owner of dangerous dog to hold policy of insurance

24- (1). Subject to this Act a person who owns a dangerous dog must have in force in relation to the dog a policy of insurance that provides coverage in respect of each claim for injury or death caused by that dog in the sum of not less than $250,000 or such other sum as the Minister may prescribe by Order.

(2) A person must not own a dangerous dog unless there is in force in respect of the dog a policy of insurance of the type referred to in subsection (1).

(3) A person who contravenes this section commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

(4) In order to comply with this Act, a policy of insurance must be a policy which -

(a) is issued by an insurer, and

(b) insures the owner and any other person specified in the policy against any liability which may be incurred by the owner in respect of the death of, or injury to a person caused by the dog in relation to which the policy of insurance is in force.

(5) If payment is made by an insurer under a policy issued under this Act, or by the owner of a dangerous dog in respect of the death of or injury to a person and the person who has died or suffered injury has to the knowledge of the insurer or owner received treatment in a medical institution in respect of the fatal or other injury, the insurer must also pay to the owner of the institution the expenses reasonably incurred in the treatment of that injury.

Cancellation or lapse of policy

- 25.- (1) If a policy of insurance required by section (24) ceases to be in force, the owner of the dangerous dog in respect of which the policy is issued must promptly inform the Division.
- (2) If it comes to the attention of the Division that a policy of Insurance required under section 24 is no longer in force, the Division must revoke the license.
- (3) The owner of a dangerous dog who fails to comply with subsection (1) commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 and to imprisonment for 6 months.
- (4) If the owner of a dangerous dog is convicted under subsection (3), the court must -
- (a) in addition make an order that the owner take out a policy of insurance required under this Act in respect of the dangerous dog within one month of the date of the conviction or such reasonable time as the Court thinks fit; and
- b. impound the dangerous dog during that period.
- (5) If the owner fails to comply with an order made under subsection (4), the Division must have the dog euthanased and the owner is liable for any expenses incurred in the keeping or euthanasing of the dog.

Joinder of insurer as co-defendant

- 26.- (1) If a plaintiff brings a civil action for damages against any person who is required by this Act to have in force a policy of insurance, then even though -
- (a) liability as between the plaintiff and the insured has not yet been determined; or
- (b) the insurer may be entitled to avoid or cancel or may have avoided or canceled the policy, the plaintiff may, subject to the provisions of this section, join the insurer as co-defendant in the action.

(2) If an insurer is joined as a co-defendant under subsection (1), the insurer may raise any defense that the insurer is entitled to under the policy of insurance or otherwise.

(3) If the insurer is joined as co-defendant or is required to make a payment to any person entitled under section 24 (4) the insurer is liable to satisfy the judgment obtained against the insured in addition to all costs and interest payable in respect of such judgment and any other costs for which the insured is liable.

(4) A plaintiff who desires to institute proceedings under this section may require the insured to provide within 14 days the name and address of the insurer, the date of the policy, and any other particulars required to enable the plaintiff to institute such proceedings.

(5) Upon receipt of the particulars referred to in subsection (4), or if the plaintiff has obtained those particulars in any other manner, whichever is earlier, the plaintiff must give to the insurer 28 days notice of the intention to institute proceedings under this section.

(6) An insured who refuses or neglects to provide the particulars required under subsection (4) commit an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $20,000.

(7) This section applies if a plaintiff brings an action in a capacity as the personal representative of a person who suffered fatal injuries.

Keeping dangerous dogs under control

27.- (1). Except for the purposed of compliance with the Act a person who owns a dangerous dog must keep the dog under proper control in the person's private premises.

(2). A dangerous dog must not be outside of a proper enclosure unless the dog is muzzled and restrained by an unbreakable chain or leash and under the control of an adult of or over the age of 18 years. The muzzle must fit the dog in such a manner that it will not cause injury to the dog or interfere with its vision or respiration, but must prevent it from biting persons or animals.

(3). The owner of a dangerous dog who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5,000 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

(4). The owner of a dangerous dog who allows it to enter private premises where it is not permitted to be commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5,000 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

(5). For the purposed of subsection (1), a dangerous dog is to be regarded as not under proper control if there are grounds for reasonable apprehension that it will injure any person whether or not it actually does so.

Obligation to secure premises

28.- (1.) A person who owns a dangerous dog must ensure that the premises on which the dog is kept are secured by a fence or wall of a suitable height, and that such fence or wall is so constructed and maintained as to prevent the escape of the dog.

(2). For the purposes of this section, a fence or wall includes a gate.

(3). A person who contravenes this section commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5,000 and to imprisonment for 3 months.

(4). An authorized person may, upon producing, if so required, a duly authenticated document showing his or her authority, at any reasonable hour enter any premises upon which a dangerous dog is kept to inspect those premises for the purpose of ensuring compliance with this section.

Warning notice.

29.- (1) A person who owns a dangerous dog or keeps a dangerous dog on his or her premises must cause to be displayed in a prominent place on the premises, a notice indicating that there is a dangerous dog on the premises

(2) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5000.

Liability for dangerous dog

30. (1). If a dangerous dog escapes from any premises, the owner of the dog is liable for an injury or damage caused by the dog.

(2). If a dangerous dog injures a person or an animal, the owner or keeper of the dog commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $10,000 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

(3). If a dangerous dog kills a person or causes the death of a person, the owner or keeper of the dog commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $25,000 and to imprisonment for one year.

Inciting dangerous dog to attack a person or animal

31.- (1). A person who incites a dangerous dog to attack another person or animal commits an offence and is liable, in addition to any other penalties he or she may incur under this Act, on summary conviction to a fine of $25,000 and to imprisonment for one year.

(2). It is a defense for a person charged with an offense under this section to establish that the other person was committing or had an intention of committing a criminal offense.

Defenses

32.- (1). References to a dangerous dog injuring a person or there being reasonable grounds for apprehension that it will do so, do not include references to a dog being used for a lawful purpose by a police officer or a person in the service of the State.

(2). The owner of a dangerous dog is not liable if an injury or damage is sustained by a person who, at the time such injury or damage was sustained, was committing a willful trespass or other tort upon premises occupied by the owner, or was teasing, tormenting, abusing or assaulting the dog or was committing or attempting to commit a crime.

(3). The owner of a dangerous dog is not liable if the dog was protecting or defending a human being within the immediate vicinity of the dog from an unjustified attack or assault.

Other specially dangerous dogs.

33.- (1) The Minister may by order amend the Schedule.

(2) If it appears to the Minister that dogs of any type other than dangerous dogs present a serious danger to the public, the Minister may by order impose in relation to dogs of that type, such restrictions as those provided in this Part with such modification as the Minister thinks appropriate.

(3) An order made under this section is subject to affirmative resolution of Parliament.

Destruction and disqualification orders

34.- (1) If a person is convicted of an offence under this Part, the Court may -

(a) order the euthanasing of the dangerous dog in respect of which the offence was committed; and

(b). order the offender to be disqualified, for such period as the Court thinks fit, from having custody, owning or control of a dangerous dog.

(2). If a Court makes an order under subsection (1)(a) in respect of a dangerous dog owned by a person other than the offender, the owner may appeal against the order.

(3). A dangerous dog must not be euthanased pursuant to an order under subsection (1)(a) -

(a). until the end of the period for giving notice of appeal against the order; and

(b). if the notice of appeal is given within that period, until the appeal is decided or withdrawn.

(4). If a court makes an order under subsection (1)(a), it may order the offender to pay such sum as the court determines to be the reasonable expenses incurred in euthanasing the dangerous dog and in keeping it pending its euthanasation.

(5). Any sum ordered to be paid under subsection (4) must be treated for the purposes of enforcement as if it were a fine imposed on conviction.

(6). A person who has custody of a dangerous dog in contravention of an order under subsection (1)(b) commits an offense and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of $5,000.

Seizure and destruction.

35. An authorized person may seize and impound a dangerous dog or a dog which appears to the person to be a dangerous dog which is in a public place or in a place where it is not permitted to be, and--

(a) may, as humanely as possible, destroy the dog if the prospect of imminent danger to people or domestic animals is present; or

(b) take the dog to the Animal Control Centre and notify the owner in accordance with sections 13 and 14.

Issue of warrant

36. - (1) A Magistrate who is satisfied by information on oath that there are reasonable grounds for believing -

(a). that an offense under this Part is being or has been committed; or

(b). that evidence of the commission of any such offense is to be found on any premises, may issue a warrant authorizing an authorized person, with assistance if needed, to enter and search those premises and to seize any dangerous dog or other thing found there which is evidence of the commission of such an offence.

(2) Sections 13 and 14 apply when a dangerous dog is seized under this section, except that if the dog is required as evidence of an offence in a court case it can be kept at the Animal Control Center until the case is finally disposed of.

Exemption

37.- (1) A reference in this Act to the owner of a dangerous dog does not include a veterinary surgeon who keeps a dangerous dog in a professional capacity for the purposes of compliance with section 4 (1).

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a “veterinary surgeon is liable for any damage caused by a dangerous dog in his or her charge.

(3) If a dangerous dog is kept at the Animal Control Centre pursuant to this Act it must be kept separate and apart from other dogs at the Centre and only for so long as is required for a decision to be made on its return or disposal under this Act.

(4) No dangerous dog may be kept at a licensed kennel.

38. Part II also applies

The owner of a dangerous dog must also comply with the requirements of Part II in respect of the dog.

PART IV - MISCELLANEOUS

Destruction of dogs that kill or injure.

39.- A police officer of the rank of sergeant or above, or a veterinary surgeon, if satisfied that any dog has killed or injured any person or dangerous animal, and whether or not there has been a prosecution for that killing or injury, may on the application of an authorized person, or of any person aggrieved by the killing or injury, destroy the dog as humanely as possible.
